

Disney Plus Tells Stories of Home

01.26.2023

The next phase of Disney Plus' "Feels Like Home" campaign began Thursday with the release of three spots that tell an interlocking story, weaving Disney, Star Wars, Marvel and Pixel properties - and the characters' intimate relationship to them - throughout.

All three spots are voiced by Rosario Dawson, who is set to star in Disney Plus' Star Wars series, Ahsoka, coming later this year. Previous spots in the "Feels Like Home" campaign have been narrated by Loki star Tom Hiddleston.

Disney Plus produced the spots, which highlights such content as Star Wars, Pixar's Toy Story and Turning Red, Marvel's Captain Marvel and more, in collaboration with Los Angeles-based entertainment agency Roger.
