

Peacock Promotes Originals Ahead of July Launch

06.25.2020

In advance of its July 15 launch on peacocktv.com and across mobile and connected-TV platforms, NBCUniversal-owned Peacock on Thursday released official trailers and key art for all of its original series-including drama, comedy, docu and kids.

Brave New World

Alden Ehrenreich (Solo) and Jessica Findlay-Brown (Downton Abbey) star in this adaptation of Aldous Huxley's best-selling novel about a utopian society of the future where everyone is not as happy as they first appear.

One of nine pieces of key art for Peacock's 'Brave New World'

The Capture

British import The Capture stars BBC spy drama's stars Holliday Grainger (The Borgias) and Callum Turner (Fantastic Beasts: The Crimes of Grindelwald).

Intelligence

David Schwimmer (Friends) returns to the NBC fold with Intelligence, a comedy from Sky One that is also written by and stars Nick Mohammed.

Key art for Peacock original 'Intelligence'

in text

center

in text

Psych 2: Lassie Come Home

Written, directed and executive produced by Psych creator Steve Franks, Psych 2: Lassie Come Home focuses on Det. Carlton Lassiter (Timothy Omundson), who is left for dead after he's ambushed on the job and left for dead. He is discovered, and as he heals in a recovery clinic, he begins to see visions. Shawn (James Roday) and Gus (Dulac Hill) return to his side to help solve the case.

Key art for USA's 'Psych' sequel 'Lassie Come Home'

Sports Docuseries

In Deep with Ryan Lochte

Life has changed for Olympic swimmer Ryan Lochte, who now has a wife and a baby, but he still holds a strong Olympic dream.

Key art for Peacock docuseries 'In Deep with Ryan Lochte'

Lost Speedways

Key art for Peacock original 'Lost Speedways with Dale Earnhardt Jr.'

in text

center

in text

Kids

Curious George

Key art for Peacock animated original 'Curious George'

Cleopatra in Space

Key art for Dreamworks' 'Cleopatra in Space'

Where's Waldo

Key art for Dreamworks' animated series, 'Where's Waldo'

Peacock streams everywhere July 15.