

Tears Flow as E!'s 'Keeping Up With the Kardashians' Wraps

02.03.2021

Tears flow across the faces of the heavily done-up Kardashian clan in this trailer for the 20th and final season-on E! at least-of Keeping Up with the Kardashians. After this, the Kardashians-Kris, Kim, Khloe, Kourtney, Kylie and Kendall-can be found on Disney-owned Hulu with original content coming to the streaming service later this year.

The spot, by Open Road, is set to Harry Styles' "Sign of the Times."
